

CONGREGATION BETH ISRAEL YOUTH SCHOLARSHIPS

APPLICATION FORM FOR:

CBI SISTERHOOD RABBI JOSEPH WARREN CAMP SCHOLARSHIP FUND
CBI YOUTH COMMITTEE UNITED SYNAGOGUE YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP FUND
CBI YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP FUND

For 2007, a streamlined application process has been established for CBI families whose children attend Jewish summer programs. A single application form can be used to apply for support for summer camps through the CBI Sisterhood Rabbi Joseph Warren Camp Scholarship Fund, for USY programs through the CBI Youth Committee, and for need-based scholarships for all summer programs through the CBI Youth Scholarship Fund.

CBI Sisterhood Rabbi Warren Camp Scholarship Fund: All children of CBI Sisterhood members and CBI children who do not have a parent who is eligible to be a Sisterhood member (i.e., a single father) who plan to attend a Jewish summer camp program of any denomination for one week or more are eligible to apply. This is not a need-based scholarship this year, but as funds are limited it will become need-based in 2008 to provide support for CBI children who would not otherwise be able to attend camp.

CBI Youth Committee USY Scholarship Fund: CBI youth attending USY (United Synagogue Youth) programs such as Encampment, USY on Wheels, USY in Israel, and USY Convention are eligible for scholarship monies from the CBI Youth Committee. This is not a need-based scholarship.

CBI Youth Scholarship Fund: CBI youth who attend any USY program or non-USY Jewish camp may apply for a need-based scholarship. Such a scholarship is independent of Youth Committee and Sisterhood scholarship awards. Applications for this scholarship will be handled confidentially by a committee over which Rabbi Schweber will preside.

To apply for a scholarship: Fill out the attached application and return it to Amy Sherr by May 21. Amy will route the application to the appropriate entity and awards will be made in June. All facets of the application process will be handled in confidence and recipients of awards will not be publicly identified.
