Dear Congregants and Friends ~

I feel in some ways like a proud parent, whose child has left the nest and gone successfully out into the world, as I dedicate my column this month to our own in-house musical group, Bashert.

After playing together and enriching and making more joyful and meaningful the Friday night prayer experience for all of us here at CBI for the past 3 years, the members of Bashert have recently decided to bring their special musical talents in the coming months to several other synagogues in New England.

Just last month, Bashert hit the road and played both at Friday night services and on Saturday evening at the home synagogue of Jon Brody’s sister in Burlington, VT. In addition to their being extraordinarily well received by the community there, the synagogue’s rabbi wrote me a lovely note, in which she stated that “[M]y community was very fortunate to have spent Leil Shabbat and Motzei Shabbat singing and dancing to the music of Bashert.” The rabbi then pointed out that, while efforts had been undertaken in the past to start a musical group in her synagogue, her community had been so moved and inspired by Bashert that the leadership was now far more hopeful that this would soon become a reality. With “imitation being the greatest form of flattery,” Bashert certainly has reason to be proud of their hard work and accomplishments.

Bashert will soon be visiting synagogues in Portsmouth, NH and Newburyport, MA. With both communities being in easy driving distance, Amy will be able to provide you with the exact dates and the names of the respective synagogues for anyone wanting to attend one or both of these services/events.

To help defray some of their ongoing expenses, Bashert is now offering attractive t-shirts for sale, for the reasonable price of $10., which shirts can be worn and are appropriate for casual wear, the beach, or for the next Shabbat Chai. I purchased a shirt and proudly wore mine to the gym the other day.

With daylight savings time now behind us, and with the days getting darker and darker earlier for the next month, how fortunate that Chanukah, the Festival of Lights, will soon be here! May it be a time of light, warmth, and blessing for all of us!

Rabbi Howard Mandell
Fellow Congregants & Friends,

By the time you are reading this, we will have celebrated Thanksgiving, one of our favorite holidays. Thanksgiving allows us to spend time with family and friends, feast on our favorite foods, and give thanks for the blessings in our lives. Hopefully, our CBI community is on your list of things you are thankful for; it’s high on our list for a number of reasons.

We are constantly impressed and humbled by the kindness and generosity of our Temple family. Over the last few weeks several of our congregants have been out shopping for Share the Light, to provide gifts for needy children to ensure they are not left out during the holidays. Others joined the Habitat for Humanity Build day to help construct homes for locals in need. Cooking, serving, shopping and driving are just a few of the myriad support activities our congregants participate in for each other and the larger community. It seems an appropriate time to recognize and give thanks for the giving community we are all part of. If you have joined us recently, THANK YOU for your involvement! If not - please join us. We know you’ll get as much out of it as you give.

As Winston Churchill famously said: “We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”

In addition to your time, your financial support is, as always, much needed and appreciated. We want to thank you for all the financial contributions you have made over the last year. As you figure out your end-of-the-year charitable donations for 2017, please consider CBI when looking for those last-minute tax deductions. Your continued financial support is vital to helping our Congregation grow and continue to be the warm and giving community we have all grown to love.

We wish you a Happy Chanukah and a Happy and Healthy 2018!

Robin Rose and Howard Spector
Co-Presidents
THANK YOU!

Bashert on the Road…in Burlington, Vermont!

On Friday, November 3, the members of Bashert (CBI’s music group) headed north to Burlington, Vermont, for an exciting out-of-town engagement. Thanks to the efforts of Barbara (Basha) Brody, Jon Brody’s sister and an active member of the shul’s Religious Committee (and now a CBI member also!), we were invited to present a musical Kabbalat Shabbat service and a Saturday night coffeehouse at Ohavi Zedek Synagogue, Vermont’s oldest and largest synagogue. After several months of planning and preparing, we were finally ready.

We had a fine turnout on Friday night, and the religious school students played an active part in the service with their own songs and readings. The congregants seemed to truly appreciate our musical offerings and welcomed us warmly at the impressive pot-luck dinner afterward. We learned a bit about the history of Ohavi Zedek and some of its more interesting projects. And our new friend, Raul, the synagogue’s long-time facilities manager, put himself at our service the entire weekend. Todah rabah, Raul!

On Saturday we shpatzired around Burlington, which is a very appealing city. You can’t possibly go hungry or thirsty there. A couple of hearty Bashertniks went for a windy bike ride along stunning Lake Champlain, which is gorgeous at any time of year. We were treated to a delicious dinner on Saturday (courtesy of OZ), and then we toodled off to present our coffeehouse, which was enthusiastically received by a robust audience. We even debuted our beautiful new Bashert on the Road T-shirts, thanks to the generosity of our own Howie Spector and Spector Textile Products. (You know you want one!) As an added bonus, CBI friends Gary and Rosalie Mauser joined us at the synagogue and also visited with family. Several audience members who chatted with us afterward mentioned that some of the Yiddish and Hebrew songs we sang triggered poignant memories for them. And some asked about how to go about starting their own music group there. It was gratifying to see that our visit was having such a positive impact.

After a group breakfast at a local eatery on Sunday morning, we headed back down through the beautiful mountains of Vermont, feeling rewarded by a special couple of days.

Stay tuned for news about upcoming Bashert on the Road events - we hope you’ll join us!

SHABBAT CHAI

December 1, 2017

and

December 22, 2017

(Family Night Kabbalat Shabbat)

6:30pm Dinner ~ 7:30pm Service

Congregational singing is accompanied by CBI’s group of talented musicians, known affectionately as “Bashert”, resulting in a spirited and uplifting Musical Shabbat filled with joy, meaning, and ruach!

Invite your unaffiliated friends to attend and consider joining the CBI family.
They may want to inquire about our Sustaining Dues Model.

Suggested dinner donation is $10 per adult; $25 maximum per family, no charge for children 12 & under. No charge if this is your first Shabbat Chai event! And, of course, no charge for attending the Service only.

Reservations should be made with Amy, 978-474-0540, office@BethIsraelMV.org, by no later than Noon the Wednesday prior. Please inform us if someone in your party has food allergies/dietary restrictions.

“Praise God with trumpet calls, with harp & lyre.
Praise God with drum and dance, flute and strings.”

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

Share the Light

Please join the Social Action Committee in brightening the holiday season for children in need this year! We are, once again, participating in Share the Light, a program organized by Temple Emanuel, to purchase gifts for children in our communities. If you would like to purchase gifts for a child, or simply wish to donate a gift card, please let Robin Rose (rmrose6016@verizon.net) and Rebecca Fishbein (rfg013@gmail.com) know. Any assistance would be much appreciated!

Lazarus House

On Sunday, October 29, the Social Action Committee provided a nutritious dinner to more than 30 guests at Lazarus House’s transitional shelter in Lawrence. Rebecca Fishbein, Caren Jacobson, Amy Friedman Lee, and Susannah Abbott provided the meal, and servers were Rebecca, Lily Guttentag, … Rebecca, Caren cooked and served and Susannah prepared the Main course.

Habitat for Humanity

On Sunday, November 5 we once again joined with members of Temple Emanuel for Habitat for Humanity’s Day that Faith Built, helping to construct a two-family home in Lawrence for two families in urgent need of affordable and permanent homes. We finished staining four porches, worked on drywall, sanding, and mudding, and installed blocking in the framing of the stairwells to accommodate the installation of railings and skirt boards. Special thank you to dedicated Habitat volunteer Tom Baird for leading us in this work and for making the Sunday builds possible.

Cor Unum

Cor Unum, the soup kitchen in Lawrence, has an urgent need for people to serve meals and clean up afterwards. To find out when help is needed, please visit their website, http://www.corunummealcenter.org, click on Logins then Volunteer Information Center login to schedule yourself. If you have forgotten your password, and are in need of a new one, please contact the office at corunum2@comcast.net. Many thanks to Rebecca Fishbein Guttentag for alerting us to this need.

The Social Action Committee welcomes your ideas for tikkun olam. Please let us know if you would like to join or would like to suggest a project!

Would you like to learn more about Chevra Kadisha?

Chevra Kadisha “holy society” is an organization of Jewish women and men who see to it that the bodies of deceased Jews are prepared for burial according to Jewish tradition. The simple and beautiful rituals of tahara (purification) are performed respectfully and tenderly, caring for the deceased by cleansing, dressing, and reciting prayers and psalms.

If you would like to learn about the local Chevra Kadisha ~ to expand your general knowledge, for personal burial planning purposes, or have specific questions ~ please contact ChevraKadishaHaverhill@gmail.com. We look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you!

A donation has been made by Elaine Winic to the Temple Fund “thanking the CBI community for support during the last year of mourning”.

A note from Elaine:

As you know, my awesome dad, Sam Winic, aka ‘Shmuael ben Yurma’, passed away last November. In the year since his passing I have been the recipient of extraordinary compassion from this community. I thank everyone for their generosity, and I also thank all of our parents, for instilling in us all the values that engender this compassion. I have often been at shul events, thinking that all of our parents, both on this earth and beyond, should be so pleased to see that their lessons of kindness to others, of supporting those in need with respect and understanding, have been well learned and exercised on a regular basis. I am so appreciative.

When we held my dad’s unveiling this past September, Rabbi Mandell asked me if I would like to share some remarks at the ceremony. I found a poem in a book of Cowboy Poetry that my dad had owned (it was given to him as a gift by Ellen Somers some years ago) that depicted my dad quite accurately. The poem evokes the spirit of Shmuael ben Yurma in a way that celebrates his essence and that I found comforting. I would like to share it with you all.

Ridin’

(by Charles ‘Badger’ Clark 1883 - 1957) - (Adapted)

There is some that like the city
Grass that’s curried smooth and green.
Theayters and stranglin’ collars,
Wagons run by gasoline.
But for me it’s hawse and saddle
Every day without a change,
And a desert sun a-blazin’
On a hundred miles of range.
Just a-ridin’, a-ridin’—
Desert ripplin’ in the sun,
Mountains blue along the skyline—
I don’t envy anyone when I’m ridin’.

When my feet is in the stirrups
And my hawse is on the bust,
With his hoofs a-flashin’ lightnin’
From a cloud of golden dust,
And the bawlin’ of the cattle
Is a-comin’ down the wind,
Then a finer life than ridin’
Would be mighty hard to find.
Just a-ridin’, a-ridin’
Splittin’ long cracks through the air,
Stirring up a baby cyclone,
Ripping up the prickly pear as I’m ridin’.
I don’t need no art exhibits

When the sunset does her best
Paintin’ everlastin’ glory
On the mountains to the west.
And your opery looks so foolish
When the night bird starts his tune,
And the desert’s silver-mounted
By the touches of the moon.
Just a-ridin’, a-ridin’—
Who kin envy kings and czars
When the coyotes down the valley
Are a-singin’ to the stars, if he’s ridin’?

When my earthly trail is ended
And my final lasso whirled
And the last great roundup’s finished
At the Home Ranch of the world,
I don’t want no harps nor halos,
Robes nor other dressed-up things.
Let me ride the starry ranges
On a pinto hawse with wings!
Just a-ridin’, a-ridin’—
Nothin’ I’d like half so well
As watching all my loved ones from above,
Won’t that be swell!....and, a-ridin’....
CBI Goes to the Movies

Twenty CBI folks enjoyed a night out at the MFA with the Boston Jewish Film Festival watching "90 Minutes of War". Though there was a comic flavor with a surreal thesis, it illustrated the frustrations and difficulties that beset the Israelis and the Palestinians on a daily basis. Bravo to the director, Eyal Halfon, for his original approach to a constantly difficult issue.

Following the movie, many of us went to a tavern in Reading, Biltmore and Main, to enjoy each other's company and to have dinner.

It was an enjoyable evening and one to strengthen our kehillah!

We had a good rainy hike on a day filled with clouds and fog - not great for views but fun all the same.

Family owned and operated for 5 generations in the Merrimack Valley
Many special occasions in the lives of the members of our Congregation are recorded on the leaves of the Tree of Life in the Sanctuary. There is room for more!

To honor the special people and events in the life of your family, please consider having a leaf engraved with a personalized sentiment.

For more information on how you can preserve your memories, please contact Amy in the office at office@BethIsraelMV.org or 978.474.0540.
JNF TREE CERTIFICATES ARE AVAILABLE AT CBI

For a contribution of $18 (same price as online at the JNF website), you can request a personalized JNF Trees for Israel certificate be sent to the recipient of your choice, for any occasion!

To learn more about the work of the Jewish National Fund, visit their website, www.jnf.org.

What a meaningful way to honor, memorialize and celebrate friends and loved ones at birthdays, anniversaries, b’nei mitzvah, accomplishments, get well wishes, and more!

Please call or email Amy in the office for more information and to order your certificates today!

PLEASE PATRONIZE THE ADVERTISERS WHO SUPPORT CBI!
