In 2017, Colin Daly took a year-long trip to Israel. It was to be a journey paying homage to his paternal Jewish roots. The experience of teaching elementary school children in a Bedouin village while there changed the trajectory of his life, as he became profoundly aware of the deep meaning of shared food experiences - and the glory of hummus!

Hear about Colin's life-altering experiences as you taste the secrets behind one of the Middle East's most delectable staples!

Colin is the young man JewishBoston.com named the "New Hummus Guru of Boston".
