You can get a head start, but if you don't finish the book, it'll still be a worthwhile conversation to join in on.

RSVPs appreciated to Barbara Moverman, barbara.moverman@gmail.com. The zoom link will be provided on Friday, 9/11.

Bring your choice of beverage and gather for some meaningful conversation.

In "How to be an Antiracist, Kendi takes readers through a widening circle of anti-racist ideas - from the most basic concepts to visionary possibilities - that will help readers see all forms of racism clearly, understand their poisonous consequences, and work to oppose them in our systems and in ourselves."

Join us as we explore the ideas brought forward in this timely book. We will consider how it speaks to us as individuals and as members of the Jewish community.

"The most courageous book to date on the problem of race in the Western mind."—The New York Times
