

Reverend Irene Monroe!

speaker, theologian, syndicated columnist

Congregation Beth Israel of the Merrimack Valley is pleased to welcome

Reverend Irene Monroe

Sunday, January 10, 2021 @11:00 AM

(via Zoom)

For a frank discussion on

“The Intersectionality of Racism, Oppression and Anti-Semitism: One Tree with Many Roots”

As we honor the life and legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

What do racism, homophobia, classism, and anti-semitism have in common? What are their historical origins? How do each of these phenomena manifest themselves in today's world? How do each of us have bias? And most importantly, how can we be allies to each other in fighting each "ism"?

Rev. Monroe will be the guest on the L'Chaim Jewish radio hour on WCAP 980AM on Friday, 1/8/21 at 10am. She has a weekly segment, "All Revved Up!" which is broadcast on WGBH (89.7FM) and is now a podcast. Rev. Monroe is also a weekly commentator on NECN News. Described in O, the Oprah Magazine, as "a phenomenal woman who has succeeded against all odds". Rev. Monroe is an African American lesbian feminist public theologian, much sought-after for her oratory and preaching.
